Did You Know...

Lutheran Social Ministries of New Jersey (LSMNJ) is a faith-based, non-profit organization whose scope of services is broad. To fulfill our mission, we continually work to provide quality services, create new programs, and build facilities to respond to the needs of New Jersey individuals and families.

Last year...

LSMNJ served more than 6,500 people through a diversified ministry program addressing many critical human care and housing needs. Our programs and services are open to all, regardless of religious affiliation or background.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING: Upwards of 925 qualified seniors and family members were at “home” in LSMNJ properties across New Jersey.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH SERVICES: Lives of more than 3,800 people were enriched through efforts such as...

- 15 families created through adoption
- legal services for 730 immigrants
- a homeless day shelter nourishing 135 individuals daily with food, friendship, and personal care resources
- more than 31,000 hours donated by over 1,600 volunteers in support of ongoing disaster recovery projects
- 17 grants awarded to launch, enhance, or maintain operations of food pantries sponsored by church congregations across New Jersey.

COMMUNITY RESIDENTIAL SERVICES: More than 165 children and adults had special housing and/or developmental needs met in caring environments.

SENIOR HEALTHCARE and RETIREMENT LIVING PROGRAMS:

Residential and care programs addressing the needs of New Jersey’s aging/elder population benefitted upwards of 1,550 individuals, aged 65 and over.

Statistics provided above are from January 1st – December 31st 2014.
