

Cherishing Our Elders

Supporting our Seniors

Lutheran Social Ministries of New Jersey provides affordable housing, social services and healthcare to more than 1,400 seniors across the state. Most are on limited incomes and some are even homebound. Many rely on the assistance of others -- especially in recent days with rising costs resulting from the pandemic. Each senior is part of the LSMNJ family. And, as such, we feel it is our responsibility to see that they receive help and assistance throughout the year. Cherishing our Elders is a program where volunteers and philanthropic support can help LSMNJ provide the seniors in our programs with access to supply-filled food pantries, grocery gift cards, warm clothes and necessities, holiday food bags, room decorations, sun catchers, personal care items, and more. The program also encourages the community to share goodwill through cards, poems, and letters, and share the warmth of friendship with all.
